

BRP PROVIDES UPDATE ON DATA LEAK

August 24, 2022

VALCOURT, QC, Aug. 24, 2022 /CNW Telbec/ - BRP Inc. (TSX: DOO) (NASDAQ: DOOO) reports that, as part of its ongoing investigation into the cyberattack, it found out today that additional employee information has been compromised, specifically certain credentials of employees using BRP computers for personal use.

As a precaution, and in order to further protect the information of its employees, BRP has asked them to change their personal passwords. Furthermore, as a precautionary measure, the Company will be offering credit monitoring services to all its employees.

BRP's investigation is still ongoing as the situation continues to evolve. At this time, the Company has no evidence that its clients' personal information has been affected.

BRP's top priority is to mitigate the consequences of the cyberattack. The Company continues to put in place all the necessary measures to protect the integrity of systems and data, and its employees and stakeholders' information.

Caution concerning forward-looking statements

Certain information included in this release, including, but not limited to, the statement that the Company will be offering credit monitoring services to all its employees and other statements that are not historical facts, are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Canadian and United States securities laws. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the use of terminology such as "may", "will", "would", "should", "could", "expects", "forecasts", "plans", "intends", "trends", "indications", "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "outlook", "predicts", "projects", "likely" or "potential" or the negative or other variations of these words or other comparable words or phrases. Forward looking statements, by their very nature, involve inherent risks and uncertainties and are based on several assumptions, both general and specific. BRP cautions that its assumptions may not materialize and that current economic conditions render such assumptions, although reasonable at the time they were made, subject to greater uncertainty. Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results or performance of BRP to be materially different from the outlook or any future results or performance implied by such statements. Further details and descriptions of these and other factors are disclosed in BRP's annual information form dated March 24, 2022.
