

Refined Road Experience: What's New for the 2026 Can-Am Spyder, Canyon, and Ryker 3-Wheel Vehicles

August 17, 2025

Five distinct models available in the 2026 lineup of Can-Am 3-wheel vehicles.

Valcourt, Quebec, August 17, 2025 – Can-Am, iconic brand of BRP Inc. (TSX:DOO; NASDAQ:DOOO), continues the evolution of its popular 3-wheel vehicles, the Can-Am Spyder, Can-Am Canyon, and Can-Am Ryker, for 2026 with fresh new modern colors and refined product offerings.

"2025 was a strong year for the Can-Am 3-wheel vehicle lineup with the introduction of the Can-Am Canyon," said Elsa Vilarinho, Director, Global Marketing, Can-Am On-Road at BRP. "The response from riders has been incredible, and as we look to 2026, we're building on that momentum and leaning into what our riders want most for the entire lineup – style, versatility and the freedom to make their vehicle their own."

Can-Am Spyder: Sophisticated Touring, Distinctive New Look

The Can-Am Spyder continues to define comfort and premiumness combining modern design and touring features for the RT, and muscular design and relaxed cruising position for the F3. For 2026, the lineup has been refreshed with:

- Spyder RT Sea-to-Sky: Now available in striking Mars Red Metallic with Liquid Titanium trim and Ridge wheel design, alongside the returning Vegas White Satin. Also, a new exclusive vehicle cover adds functionality and flair.
- Spyder F3 Limited Special Series: Now features Mars Red Metallic paint, Carbon Black Ridge wheels and Liquid titanium trim, and LED fog lights as standard for better visibility and enhanced visual presence on the road.
- Spyder F3-S: Sports a head-turning Circuit Yellow Metallic option making its comeback this year, combined with Hyper Silver trims.

There are also streamlined color choices across the Can-Am Spyder RT, RT Limited, F3-T, and F3 Limited, which include Mineral Blue and Pearl White, as well as Monolith Black Satin for the F3 Limited and F3-S. These colors are focused on what riders want – sharp, timeless color choices that stand out on the road.

Can-Am Canyon: Built for the Road Less Traveled

Back for its second season, the Can-Am Canyon is purpose-built for adventure – on pavement or dirt roads – featuring a powerful Rotax 1330 engine and three distinct trims:

- Canyon Standard: A highly customizable platform that's perfect for solo riders who want to customize their vehicle for their adventure with integrated LinQ accessory compatibility.
- Canyon XT: Designed for solo riding or 2-up touring with self-leveling rear suspension, heated grips, added comfort features, and aluminum top and side cases.
- Canyon Redrock: The ultimate adventure setup with premium color-matched cases, backup camera, heated grips, and factory-installed KYB Smart-Shox semi-active suspension.

Building on the excitement of a strong first year, the 2026 Can-Am Canyon lineup returns as it should be – unchanged and ready for more.

Can-Am Ryker

The Can-Am Ryker remains a top choice for new riders entering the 3-wheel community. With its low cost of entry, intuitive continuously variable transmission (CVT), and enhanced stability, it is ideal for spontaneous city rides or day-to-day rides.

- The Can-Am Ryker remains available in three distinctive trims: Standard with Rotax 600 or 900 engines, Sport, and Rally.
- For 2026, the Can-Am Ryker lineup will include three striking new panel colorways: Crimson Rush, Peachy Frenzy, Cotton Candy, which was proposed by the Women of On-Road community and selected by the brand.
- Riders can continue to personalize their Ryker with dozens of accessories and color panels designed to match their style, their ride, and their road.

This includes everything from storage solutions and wind protection to handlebars, lighting upgrades, and comfort-enhancing features.

Accessories

With more than 250 innovative accessories, including the proprietary LinQ products in the Can-Am collection, the Spyder, Canyon and Ryker 3-wheel vehicles are quickly and easily customized to match any adventure.
